NOVEMBER

Dear Parents,

Greetings of the day!

November marks the beginning of the winter season in many parts of the world. It's often associated with gratitude, remembrance, and preparation for the end of the year. In various cultures, November is a time for festivities, awareness campaigns, and historical commemorations. Children's Day is Celebrated in honor of Jawaharlal Nehru's birthday, Children's Day in India emphasizes the importance of children's education and welfare. It's a day for schools and communities to organize fun activities and educational programs. Guru Nanak Jayanti, also known as Guru Nanak Gurburab, is one of the most significant festivals in Sikhism, celebrating the birth of Guru Nanak Dev Ji, the founder of the Sikh faith. The festival usually falls on the full moon day of the Kartik month (Kartik Purnima) according to the Hindu lunar calendar, which is usually in November. Kindly go through the information sheet of the month of November as it will keep you updated about curriculum activities for the month of November.
