INFORMATION SHEET OF AUGUST
CLASS: I

AUGUST

Dear Parent,

Greetings of the Day!

Rakhi, a cherished festival that celebrates the bond between siblings. Sisters tie colorful threads (rakhis) on their brothers' wrists as a symbol of love and protection. In return, brothers promise to safeguard their sisters. This heartfelt tradition fosters love, unity, and strengthens the sibling relationship.

This month is quite significant as nation observe Independence Day across the country. Students actively participate in various events, parades, and cultural activities to express their patriotic fervor. Independence Day also serves as a reminder for students to value their freedom, understand the sacrifices made by their forefathers, and take responsibility for shaping the nation's future with pride, determination, and a sense of responsibility.

Kindly go through the information sheet carefully as it will keep you updated with the curriculum for the month of August.
